THE RESURRECTION OF MAN

By JAMES A. EDGERTON
(Copyright by American Press Association, 1911.)

If faith in man were music
And love of man were song,
Then might I sing a measure
To move the world along—
Its theme, the Christ that is to be,
The Christ in all Humanity.

Tried by his sense illusions,
Himself man has denied,
Has scoffed the God within him
And has been crucified,
Has borne his cross up Calvary,
The Christ in all Humanity.

Now from his tomb self builded
At last he shall be freed.
That will be resurrection
And Easter morn, indeed!
And he shall know himself and see
The Christ in all Humanity.

I hail him, the arisen,
With lilies at his feet,
Called forth by his own angels
In resurrection sweet.
Roll back the stone of self and free
The Christ in all Humanity.

A SENTIMENT FOR EASTERTIDE

Easter exemplifies the triumph of life. Life is the supreme fact. Let us believe only in life, refusing to be domineered by the unsubstantial wraith called death, refusing to be diverted hereby from "the upward looking and the light." Then will Easter be to us the most significant, the most inspiring, the most uplifting of all the days that dawn.
